¹Per the CCSS, narrative elements in grades 3–5 may include: establishing a situation, organizing a logical event sequence, describing scenes, objects or people, developing characters’ personalities, and using dialogue as appropriate. In grades 6–8, narrative elements may include, in addition to the grades 3–5 elements, establishing a context, situating events in a time and place, developing a point of view, and developing characters’ motives. In grades 9–11, narrative elements may include, in addition to the grades 3–8 elements, outlining step-by-step procedures, creating one or more points of view, and constructing event models of what happened. The elements to be assessed are expressed in grade-level standard 3 for writing and elucidated in the scoring guide for each PCR.

W4	With guidance and support from adults, produce writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task and purpose. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
W5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language standards 1–3 up to and including grade 3.)
W6	With guidance and support from adults, use technology to produce and publish writing (using keyboarding skills) as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
W7	Conduct short research projects that build knowledge about a topic.
W8	Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.
W9	(Begins in grade 4)
W10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
