

Appendix A: Accessibility Features and Accommodations for Students Taking the Paper-Based NJSLA and NJGPA

Students who may participate in a Paper-Based NJSLA and NJGPA

Although the NJSLA and NJGPA are computer-based using an online testing platform, there may be specific instances which require a student to take a paper-based assessment instead. The following conditions may result in a school choosing to administer a paper-based assessment:

- Condition #1: A student is unable to use a computer due to the impact of their disability. The student’s inability to participate in computer-based assessments should be documented in an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or 504 plan.
 - Examples may include:
 - a student with a disability who cannot participate in the online assessment due to a health-related disability, neurological disorder, or other complex disability, and/or cannot meet the demands of a computer-based test administration;
 - a student with an emotional, behavioral, or other disability who is unable to maintain sufficient concentration to participate in a computer-based test administration, even with test accommodations; or
 - a student with a disability who requires assistive technology that is not compatible with the testing platform.

- Condition #2: A student who recently entered the school and has had very little or no prior experience or familiarity with technology.

- Condition #3: A student who is unable to access an online assessment due to religious beliefs.

There are a few accessibility features that must be pre-selected for the student in the SR/PNP. Accommodations for students with disabilities and/or ELs must be pre-selected for the student in the SR/PNP. When needed for the paper-based accessibility feature or accommodation, this information is included in the “Before Testing” guidance and the corresponding column in the SR/PNP file is also provided.

Refer to the NJSLA and NJGPA Accessibility Features and Accommodations Manual for additional information concerning test administration considerations, accessibility features, and accommodations.

Administrative Considerations for All Students

Detailed guidelines on the administration of the New Jersey assessments will be included in the Test Administrator Manuals and the Test Coordinator Manuals.

Although students are generally tested in their regular classroom and follow the standard test administration schedule for the grade and content area being assessed, the principal has the authority to schedule students in testing spaces other than regular classrooms, and at different scheduled times, as long as all requirements for testing conditions and test security are met as set forth in the Test Administrator Manuals and Test Coordinator Manuals. Decisions may be considered, for example, that benefit students who are easily distracted in large group settings by testing them in a small group or individual setting. In general, changes to the timing, setting, or conditions of testing are left to the discretion of the principal or test coordinator.

In accordance with principles of universal design for assessment, NJSLA and NJGPA are providing the following administrative guidance regarding the timing and scheduling of assessments and setting/locations for testing. These administrative considerations are available to all students. The principal may determine that any student can receive one or more of the following test administration considerations, regardless of the student’s status as a student with a disability or EL.
