General Information

- Students will circle their answers and write their responses to constructed-response items in the Large-Print Test Booklets.
- Refer to Sections 6.0 and 7.0 of the Spring 2025 Test Administrator Manual for more information on tasks to complete before, during, and after testing.

Reminders for Large-Print Testing

- Make sure you have a list of the accommodations for the students testing and have received the proper training from your School Test Coordinator (STC). Consult Appendix A of the Accessibility Features and Accommodations (AF&A) Manual for the list of available accessibility features and accommodations for paper-based testing.
- If the students in your group require a Human Reader, follow the protocol outlined in Appendix B of the AF&A Manual.
- If one or more students are testing with extended-time accommodations, you will need to adjust the amount of time each student will have to complete each unit. Refer to each student's accommodations for information on extended time and follow the guidelines outlined in Appendix E of the AF&A Manual.
- If one or more students require a word-to-word dictionary as an accommodation, have these available to students or allow students to bring their own. For more information, see the table entitled Accommodations for Multilingual Learners Taking the Paper-Based Assessments in Appendix A of the AF&A Manual.
- Also see Appendix J: NJSLA and NJGPA for Students with Visual Impairment, Including Blindness of the AF&A Manual.
- All student responses recorded in the student's paper test booklet must be transcribed into TestNav by the posted deadline based on the NJSLA/NJGPA Accommodated Paper-Tests Procedures document available at the New Jersey Assessments Resource Center located under Educator Resources > Test Administration Resources > Testing Resources.
- For student responses that must first be transcribed into the paper test booklet, follow the steps in Appendix C: Protocol for the Use of the Scribe Accommodation and for Transcribing Student Responses in the New Jersey Accessibility Features and Accommodations (AF&A) Manual.

Using the Test Administrator Script

The administration script in this document will be used for all units of the English Language Arts (ELA) component of NJGPA. The script must be used with the Spring 2025 Test Administration Manual. On the first read through, Test Administrators (TAs) are required to adhere to this script for administering the ELA component of NJGPA. Read word-for-word the bold instructions in each “Say” box to students. Do not modify or paraphrase the wording in the “Say” boxes. Some of the “Say” boxes are outlined with a dashed line and should only be read aloud if they are applicable to the students testing. Some directions may differ slightly by unit and are noted within the administration script. Text that is outside the “Say” boxes includes directions for TAs to follow and should not be read to students.

It is critical to ensure that students have the appropriate accessibility features and accommodations prior to testing. To verify student accessibility features and accommodations, reach out to your STC. Refer to Section 6.1 and Section 6.2 of the Spring 2025 Test Administrator Manual for further instructions on how to check accessibility features and accommodations.

According to New Jersey Administrative Code (N.J.A.C.) 6A:8-4.1(e), “District boards of education shall be responsible for ensuring the security of all components of the Statewide assessment system that are administered within the school district.” Unauthorized electronic devices can significantly undermine the integrity of test results, thereby compromising a district’s ability to evaluate and interpret student performance accurately. Upholding rigorous standards to protect the assessment process ensures that the data are used to inform educational initiatives is both valid and reliable.
